Hello,

I would like some information on why food trucks are being targeted in the area.

The rules of only being able to be open for 8 hours plus having to pack up and leave everyday are very hard to fathom and highly disruptive to business.

Who are these rules supposed to protect?

As a person who LOVES and frequents food trucks I would love to understand the rationale behind such a decision.

It seems that there is an attack (strong word) on all things small business these days.

The things that bring us together as a community and make us connect and feel human.

We need more flexibility, to be free to make money for our families and to provide for our communities, not less. We don't need more useless rules and regulations slowly eroding away our basic human rights and all the things that bring us joy in a world that is increasingly anti-connection, and pro tech and pro big business.

Leave the food trucks alone.

I look forward to learning more and hopefully hearing that this stupid rule is not going to be enforced.

Thank you!
Melissa
