Good morning Mike

I am sending this message regarding the new proposed changes to the bylaw orders.

I am very concerned about our rights as homeowners and land owners being superseded by this by law. I myself have nothing to hide however, I don't feel that this strong armed decision is in the best interest of the people who live within the area of the CVRD.

I would like to know if there will be a public hearing regarding the changes, and if not why there will be no public hearing. I feel very strongly that the CVRD is getting a little bit too big for their britches and I'm very unhappy about how things are being forced upon us without even a discussion.

Please pass on my concerns to the CEO or CAO and your other fellow Area Directors. I am sure you will be getting many, many, many messages regarding this issue as well the other Area Directors regarding this matter.

I believe full transparency is necessary to move forward. When they don't hold public forums where the public can speak on their behalf, to me, it seems sneaky and underhanded.

Our communities have a right to be heard.
