The Cowichan Valley regional District bylaw number 4373

This plan is too broad, too detailed and too restrictive. The citizens of the CVRD have a strong dislike for bylaw 4373 overall. This plan 4373 is troubling for a myriad of reasons. This plan is not viewed by the citizens of the CVRD as a tool to protect our peaceful enjoyment of our homes. It is instead viewed as a threat to our hopes, dreams, hobbies, homes, and our general enjoyment of the Cowichan Valley.

The renters and almost homeless are also in the crosshairs of the benevolent government. I fear that there will be many repercussions and unintended consequences of this plan if it is forced through.

When drumming, to not hit the drum is often more effective than smashing away! We are in need of clear-eyed, deep thinking, common sense, and reality based leadership at this time. A good politician will always bring the general population along with them.

Thank you for your consideration,

John Smith
