Hello, my name is Abbey and I am writing to you on behalf of my fellow small business owners in the Cowichan Valley. I am extremely disappointed to read about the new CVRD food truck requirements and rules. I moved to the area almost three years ago, like others to get a fresh start in a more affordable town. Drifters Creamery is an absolute staple in our area. They are also a loving family just trying to provide for not just themselves, but for our community. Without them there would be a huge void. They also are extremely generous and donated to the No Worries Moms group, a moms group I run helping moms in desperate need. Please make this right and fix this problem.
