Subject: Amendments to Zoning impacting food trucks

To whom it may concern,

We are new residents in the Cowichan Valley, and highly concerned by the restrictive nature of the new zoning laws, especially when it comes to food trucks.

Specifically, the limitations on hours of operation (8) and requirement of moving the truck off site. Why create more hurdles for small businesses, especially when our local economy needs support?

I urge you to reconsider these, and perhaps some other zoning changes that make the Cowichan Valley an attractive place for entrepreneurs and people who want the freedom to live their lives in a self sufficient way. There's nothing worse than bylaws for the sake of bylaws, so I at least encourage staff to take the time to share the rationale, and evidence, behind some of these changes.

Thanks,
Daniel Y.
