Last night Chek tv uncovered your plan to prevent rural land-owners from small farming i.e. equine boarding....chickens for sustenance etc.. I live in Area A regional district so at this time it doesn't affect me but my question is this....what are your goals? Is this a way to free up land for developers? Who on your board would benefit? Weren't these regional districts created to protect farming? You've opened a kettle of very stinky fish whose aroma will not go away anytime soon. Good luck. The chickens always come home to roost.
