Hello,

I have been reading about the recent ideas about restricting RV use on private land and food security around chickens. Which come with $50k fines?

Can you please send me the name and emails of the specific agent(s) who support this?

In light of the recent global issues, can you confirm that these agents are not funded by foreign militaries in order to attack the food security and freedoms of our community? Or in the very least, a corrupt real-estate class perhaps?

What makes anyone think this is even remotely acceptable, ever?

Braeden
